

It's time to stop and pink

Residents yesterday turned out in large numbers to walk the talk on breast cancer awareness at the BurJuman Pink Walkathon. The annual event was held at Zabeel Park, where walkers in high spirits wore pink ribbons, matching caps and T-shirts. Gulf News photographers Ahmed Ramzan and Clint Egbert captured the moments.

